

RUPESTRE TREKKING NEW

Half Day I 4 Hours I Low/Medium Difficulty

Let's enter into the wonderful landscapes that Cerro Benítez, Rupestre sector has prepared for us. Between lengas and ñirres forests, we will be privileged witnesses of the passage of time captured in the majestic conglomerate-type geological formations, as well as one of the few wonderful vestiges that the Aonikenk culture has inherited to these territories.

FERRIER & MONZINO VIEWPOINT NEW

Full Day | 6 Hours | Medium Day

Let's get to know the west area of the Torres del Paine National Park in depth. We will carry out walks in two different sectors of the park, the first of them in the pingo sector, from where we will have a 2-hour ascent until we reach the Ferrier viewpoint and we will use the same path for the descent. After this, we will move for around 30 minutes by car to the Villa Monzino area, from where we will take a gentle and comforting walk in the direction of Weber Bridge, having as the main focus a dazzling view of the Cuernos del Paine. We will expand our knowledge of one of the least explored areas of Torres del Paine.

HORSEBACK RIDE IN A PATAGONIAN FIELD

Half day | 5 Hours | Low / medium difficulty

Heading out from Remota, it takes about a 30minute drive to get to atraditional Patagonian ranch (estancia). We will be received by a 'Gaucho'(Cowboy) who will take you on a ride through the Patagonian landscape, where you will see magnificent views of cliffs sculpted by glaciers and natural rock viewpoints, formed by wind erosion. In this imposing but spectacular environment, we will take a well deserved break to share some 'mate'; a traditional hot tea beverage of Patagonia.

TORRES DEL PAINE ACTIVE NATIONAL PARK

Full day | 8 Hours | Low / medium difficulty

Photographic safari through Torres del Paine. We focus our journey on the eastern side of the park, where most of the animals are found. We begin with Laguna Azul, a place visited by the first tourist expedition in the area, in which Lady Florence Dixie participated; it is also one of the best places to see the Towers. We will continue until we reach the Paine Waterfall. Later, after a 3-hour hike, we will have contact with the Guanacos throughout the pampas and visit a rocky shelter where some remains of indigenous rock paintings are found.

BALMACEDA AND SERRANO NAVIGATION

Full day | 8 Hours | Low difficulty

This journey replicates the one made by the expert Spanish pilot Juan Ladrilleros in 1557 when, with the last hope of finding the Strait of Magellan, he came across the glaciers of Mount Balmaceda. Setting sail from Puerto Natales, we will sail for 3 hours along the Last Hope Inlet towards Mount Balmaceda, located within the Bernardo O'Higgins National Park, the largest in our country. We will arrive at a port within the national park and take a short hike to get closer to the Serrano Glacier. On the way back, we will visit a ranch to enjoy a typical Patagonian lamb barbecue.

GREY LAKE NAVIGATION

Full day I 8 Hours I Low / medium difficulty

We will depart towards Torres del Paine National Park via the Serrano route, where we will visit the viewpoints of Lake Toro, the Cuernos, and Grey Glacier. We will then head to Lake Grey, where we will embark on a three-hour navigation towards Grey Glacier. You'll have the opportunity to enjoy an unparalleled landscape composed of floating icebergs, lush vegetation, and imposing mountains. From a very short distance, you'll be able to appreciate the beauty and magnitude of the ice walls, which are more than 20 meters high, that the glacier offers as a spectacle.
